

JUNE: FAMILY LIFE

June 22: Parent / Child Relationships

Scripture: Ephesians 6:1-4 ; Proverbs 22:6

- Can obedience and honor look different? How so?
- How can parents balance discipline with love and encouragement?
- How does Proverbs 22:6 encourage long-term thinking in parenting?
- In what ways can these verses apply to spiritual parenting or mentoring, not just biological relationships?
- What are practical ways parents can “bring up” their children in the “instruction of the Lord”?

June 29: Generational Impact

Scripture: Psalm 103:17 ; Proverbs 13:22 ; Titus 2:1-8

- What kind of inheritance—spiritually, emotionally, or practically—do you want to leave behind for future generations?
- How can your life today make a lasting impact for your children, grandchildren, or even people you may never meet?
- What does it look like to intentionally invest in younger people? Have you seen or experienced this kind of spiritual mentoring in action?
- What might prevent older generations from engaging with younger ones in the church or family setting? How can those barriers be overcome?
- What do these verses teach us about the importance of thinking beyond our own generation?
